ABSTRACT

Unit Student Activities (UKM) is a place to develop and distributing interest, talent and expertise the students inside the campus. In the process develop a certain expertise, the students especially Telkom University students need to know information that can distribute their expertise. The availability of digital media is very important for UKM providers information center that can help students get information quickly and complete by using mobile application. The development of this system using java and xml programming language and mysql as the database. this application expected to facilitate and to make easy the dissemination of UKM information so that can increase students interests and talents in nonacademic achievement.

Keywords: UKM, Information, Students, Mobile Apps.