ABSTRACT

UKM (Student Activity Unit) are the crucible activity studenship outside the class to develop interest in , talent and expertise certain .With the smes can develop various skills smooth ( softskill ) , creativity , social awareness , critical power , courage , leadership , and soul nationality , improve the welfare of students and a growing love to art and culture , and sensitivity and social responsibility through devotion to the community. UKM in university telkom own still use manual way and based paper ( paper based) in all activity run .Given solution is make application information management smes web-based used as a means communication and management of data students , UKM and the studentship to a university campus telkom. Information presented in the form of web constructed in framework ci ( code igniter ) and used a database mysql .With the this application , expected ease in managing data smes , students , part kemahasiswaan , comments and personal message controlled by admin .In addition , provide information about registration to be the smes , events held by sme , registration committee event , ticket event , articles and other information.

Keyword: Student Activity Unit, Web, Application