

ABSTRACT

Financial Services Authority (FSA) is a state agency established by Act No. 21 of 2011 which function organized system of regulation and supervision is integrated to the overall activities in the financial services sector both in the banking sector, capital market and financial services sector non- banks such as Insurance, pension Funds, Financing Institutions, and other Financial Services. Institutions. This application is built using the PHP programming language, Codeigneter, and MySQL. Aplikasi can generate reports in the form of journals, ledgers, and financial reports.

Keywords: general journal, general ledger, financial statements.