ABSTRACT

Al-Mukhlisin foundation is one of Moslem institution located in Bandung District, has been operating since 1970. New student admission in this institution is still using a manual method, so it has not been well managed. As prospective students less collect registration file requirements, Al-Qur'an reading and writing test information is not up to all students, the value of reading test results Al-Qur'an unknown students, and reports PSB incomplete to the chairman of the Foundation. The method used in this workmanship is the waterfall method, in requirements do it interviews, observations and questionnaires. this application based Android, Tools used is Android Studio as the unification of units program then build into Apk (Application Package) to spin into the Android platform. Programming language used is Java, PHP and MySQL as storage. Test used is Black Box Testing and User Acceptance Testing. Application New Student Registration Based Android.

Keywords: New Student Registration, Android, Application Package