

ABSTRACT

Violation is a transgressing and lighter than crime. No consistent regulation or rules will be the main cause of the violation. One of the offense cases is the incidence of student delinquency, be it outside the school or within the school itself. To find out how the level of indiscipline of student in the school is required a technology to help teachers in knowing the student's discipline level. As well as the work to record reports of violations student's attitudes in SMAN 6 Surabaya, because making records of violations of students is needed to determine the level of discipline of students. With the foundation the built the application of student behavior staging recording in school SMAN 6 Surabaya, this application is expected to help maximally and can minimize the level of confusion in recording the value of students attitudes in school. And can be reference of the school in determining the policies in coaching students within the school. This application is made using waterfall method, as well as design usecase diagram and entity relationship diagram. The result of construction of this application is to facilitate the SMAN 6 Surabaya in the management of records of violations of students attitude.

Keyword : Violations, Application, Students