

ABSTRACT

Event management application is an application designed and used specifically for the management of event activities that exist in Telkom University. With the aim of facilitating users, Section Student Affairs and UKM / Ormawa to facilitate the submission of activity proposals, event verification, event publication, event data management. Even help facilitate students to make the process of purchasing event tickets, print event tickets and print certificates through which event certificates will be informed TAK points (Student Activity Transcript) obtained by students from the event that followed.

This application is built using Codeigniter (CI), PHP and MySQL with the workmanship method used is Waterfall method and tested by using Black Box Testing method. This management application is made in the hope to overcome the problems that have been happening that the process has not been computerized or done manually.

Keywords : Event management application, Event, Section Student Affairs, UKM/Ormawa, Student.