

ABSTRACT

Online Store Application of Flower Crown CrownFlowerID is a website that facilitates people for ordering products. Ordering readystock product or customize product. In addition it helps owner and employees in managing ordering data. Customize feature of website makes easy for people to customize and see the estimated production. Readystock feature allows people to make orders without queue. And also the owner have advantages in managing ordering data and material requirement data. This application made by Waterfall method. Web-based application and implement ted with CodeIgniter framework, PHP programming language, and MySQL database as data storage media.

Keywords: Online Store, Customize, Readystock