

ABSTRACT

Increasing internet technology, make many enterprise compete to introduce their services like promotion, enterprise profile, and give information about their enterprise to society. In order that, supporting build application that can have media that introduce their partner to society can give some information activity improvement in Community Development in Telkom. Application built based on GIS (Geographic Information System) because this application have point that content partner data. That make Profile and Information Mitra Application on PKBL programme based on GIS.

Profile and Information Mitra Application on PKBL programme based on GIS have many function such as to display partner profile, display profile partner in map, and update their attribute data, give information about mitra and PKBL programme, display promotion activity by PT Telkom. Application built by structure analysis and design with waterfall model. Database use Microsoft Access, web editor use Dreamweaver MX, GIS use MAP INFO and programme script use ASP

Key word : Profile, Information, Mitra, GIS, PKBL.