

ABSTRACT

This research discusses the news framing, framing the news carried by online media Tribunnews.com and Merdeka.com in the news about the terrorist bombings Krishna Murti post Sarinah Thamrin and Krishna Murti mutation positions related issues. News on the analysis of both the media is the news that has the same theme and the date on which the adjacent but have different contents. The method is by using Framing Zhongdang Pan and Gerald M. Kosicki. In analyzing, there are four structures used in this method. Syntax Structure is how an event arranged by journalists. Script structure that is how journalist tells the events into the form of stories in the news. Thematic structure is how journalists view the events with the disclosure by the proportion of sentences, grammar relations between sentences that formed thoroughly and Rhetorical Structure: how journalists assert a sense of meaning necessarily being in the news. Results from this study showed that the ratio Tribunnews.com and Merdeka.com in framing the news is no similarity in packaging and carry the flow of information about Krishna Murti. Very obvious, that Tribunnews.com are positive and pro Krishna Murti while Merdeka.com further highlight the negative nature of Krishna Murti and tends to alienate.
