

ABSTRACT

Muhammad Dikrillah Al Sidik

E-mail: dikrillah26@gmail.com

The museum is a public facility that is instructive in use for preservation as well as entertainment for the public. Museum has a function as a means of informative, educational and entertainment for the museum to have value of the objects on display and appeal to the public to visit the museum. Film is a work of art created humans to humans. herefore, the design of the film museum as a place for movie lovers and film lovers to learn about the history of Indonesian cinema. The design of this film museum has a collection of display systems such as an assortment of custom mannequins, the film properties, movie posters, and the scene by scene in the movie. With the display system are manifold, people know about the history and character - film figures in Indonesia. The design of this movie-themed museum and the concept of "collateral" is between one with only continuously expected to increase comfort in the interior and can make people become familiar with the history of Indonesian cinema.

Keywords: Museum, movies, history, facilities and displays, collateral.