

ABSTRACT

Education facilities is interests that influence the community life. The development of very rapidly in population every local community/city must get can be supported by facilities-facilities good. One of educational facilities. The total number of Jakarta as the capital of densely populatad and it has to be followed up an education infrastructure that can use must be converted into priorities and have a good affect on the lives of ordinary people. An education infrastructure that present in the middle of the broad community one of them is a library. The library is a container shelter all the science, hence the library had to be in developed in the center of the community well and comfortable.

The library west Jakarta able to meet a need and supports need of education in their area, with the existence of library the regions as well can be the provision of the service of the required information. West Jakarta having inhabitants and according to facilities and public space to give comfort to visitor. With that of spatial planning of chamber of a public building must be able to be designed with well and in accordance with a standard from psychological library buildings so comfort for public transport each the condination meeting.

Key Words : Redesign, the library, west Jakarta