

ABSTRACT

South Jakarta is the third most populous in Jakarta. Seen from the statistics, 81% people are students, while 33,28% was dropping out. Where that age is productive age to learn. In addition, the public has a habit of “hangout” when leisure. Firman Muntaco a genius of Betawi said, characteristic people of Jakarta is open, honest, easy to get along, like gathered, and friendly. This is evident from more than 80 a registered when the Jakarta Community Carnival at the plaza south southeast Bung Karno.

Based on from the results of the survey and literature survey, a writer applying the theme of design is Education and Cultural Learning Centre by mean of the concepts from the custom of library users.

In accordance with the objectives and targets Redesign Office and Public Libraries of south Jakarta, obtained from design that made a library with the concept of community according with custom. The application of facilities in regard to the general public and zoning optimal area.

Redesign Office and Public Libraries of South Jakarta is expected to achieve optimum result so that it can be give positive impact for all the users both in design and in its function

Keywords: Libraries, Education and Cultural Learning Centre, Habit, Redesign