

PREFACE

Praise to Allah SWT for the grace constituent to complete the thesis entitled “Analysis Factors of Social Media use Toward Online and Offline Political Participation of Young Adults” proposed as the requirement in obtaining a Bachelor’s Degree in Management International ICT Business Studies Program University of Telkom.

In the process of preparation of this thesis, the author gets help, support, guidance, and correction as well as the suggestion from various parties. Hence the author would like to thank:

1. Mr. Ridwan and Mrs. Fatmawaty, my beloved parents who were always supporting and encouraging me to finish what I started more than 4 years ago.
2. Ir. A.M.A Suyanto, MBA., DBA, as supervisor thesis for the time, support, advice, the opportunity given to me before and during the preparation of this paper and refined the ideas about social media and politics.
3. Ma’am Irni Yunita, ST., MT, as my academic supervisor that always guided me during the college study.
4. Mr. Adhi Prasetio, ST., MM, and Ma’am Damayanti Octavia, S.E., M.M, for the correction and suggestion for the improvement of this paper.
5. My beloved high school friends, classmates of International ICT Business 2013 and all the people that I cannot mention one by one which helps me during preparation and for the friendship in the past of three years of college.

The researcher aware that the preparation of this paper is still far from perfection. Therefore, criticism and suggestions are expected as the material improvement in the foreseeable future. Hopefully, this research will contribute to knowing how social media influenced political participation of young adults in Indonesia and also useful for all parties. Thank you.

Bandung, 30 August 2017

The Researcher