

THE ROLE OF STATISTIC INFORMATION COMMUNICATION AND ENCRYPTION SERVICES OF BEKASI CITY IN THE IMPLEMENTATION OF PUBLIC INFORMATION DISCLOSURE CONSTITUTION

SITI SARAH DWI NAHLA
NIM. 1502144284

ABSTRACT

The development of technology and communication produced fast, practical, and opened information flow. In order to put a good governance system in a country, therefore public information disclosure is needed to optimize public security. Indonesia has Public Information Disclosure Constitution that requires every public institution to implement the constitution, including the Government of Bekasi City. The Government of Bekasi City implement the constitution through Statistic Information Communication and Encryption Service of Bekasi City. The purpose of this research is to described the roles and reasons of Statistic Information Communication and Encryption Service of Bekasi City as an implementation of Public Information Disclosure Constitution. Methods that were used in this research is case study which to collected the data documentation, observation, and interview were used. In this research, writer used public relations roles concept and public information discloser operational standard for public institution. The result of this research is Statistic Information Communication and Encryption Service of Bekasi City as the Placemen of information and Documentation Manager and the central point of execute public information disclosure in Bekasi City's Governance. Moreover, Statistic Informations Communication and Encryption Service of Bekasi City had been well-execute public information disclosure; such as Peraturan Wali Kota Bekasi No 27 Tahun 2017, information documents which correspondend to Public Information Disclosure Constitution, utilization of the website ppid.bekasikota.go.id and all information staff that was well-trained. However, the Service had not been maximalize, due to lack of strategic planning, communication strategy, and special training for executing the Public Information Disclosure.

Word Order: Public Relations Roles, Statistic Information Communication Service and Encryption of Bekasi City, Public Information Disclosure.