

ABSTRACT

Kindergarten is a process of the development of children aged from birth to six years as a whole, one of the form of early childhood education which is education a kindergarten (kindergarten). Based on analysis of the explained that kindergarten very important, the sample a Little Moslemkindergarten is located in the district of bandung is an institution of kindergarten. In this school does not apply its administration and finance in accordance with the standart of accounting. The application based on the web is built with the orientation of the object, the development of using the model sdlc a prototype and using PHP and framework code igniter. functionality of this application to manage the school administration, the recording of cash, its spending cash and make financial records such as journals, books and financial report in the form of the report of cash receipt, cash disbursement and income statements. This application is using the test of the black box testing, the testing of the manual and testing in the application.

Keyword : Administration, finance , Cash Basic, PHP and code igniter