

ABSTRACT

Trijaya Store is a company engaged in the field of sales and services, consisting of various sales of motorcycle spare parts. Trijaya store was established in 2015, with the owner named Tri gunawan. Sparepart sales transaction process in Trijaya store that is customer approached Trijaya store and order directly then financial officer will write list of goods that have been sold in sales book. Customers in Trijaya store consist of two types: party and non party, sale transaction done by non party type customer is done by cash, whereas by party customer type done by cash and credit, repayment for credit sale only give max period 7 day . In addition to consisting of sales transactions, the Trijaya store also handles purchase transactions made by Trijaya store to suppliers of goods to be purchased. This application can facilitate when the transaction of goods purchases, goods sales, payments expenses, installments, can display the list of available stocks, know the profits earned each month. This application is made based on the web with object-oriented techniques using prototype work methods. Tools used to create this application using MySQL database, codeigniter, and PHP programming language. Applications that have been created can handle purchase transactions, sales transactions in cash and credit, handle payment of expense transactions, display the list of necessary stock and accounting records and financial statements.

Keywords: Cash sales, Credit Sales, Purchases