

ABSTRACT

---

My house application is an application that raised the issue in Darul hikam II Kindergarten, namely how to help children to learn from the parts and goods at home, with the solution's build My house application that comes with features and quizzes material explanation of the house. My House application using waterfall method, with the implementation of this application, it can help kindergarten students Darul Hikam II. Any functionality contained in this application, has been through a series of tests with the method of black box testing, and user acceptance test. As a result, the entire functionality has been able to meet their stated objectives as part of the application as a whole. Based on these test results, it can be concluded that this application has successfully met the initial goals of development.

Keywords: House, Darul Hikam Kindergarten, waterfall, media learning.