

DOCUMENTARY PRODUCTION “ASKARA: Voice from Europe”

(A Music Documentary About Telkom University Choir’s Journey Towards International Stage in Europe)

Abstract :

The final work is taking a form in a documentary film aims to tell how the struggle of Telkom University Choir towards the international stage in Europe. This work is based on cinematographic, lighting, sound system, documentary film, and choir theories. The data collection used for this final work is research, interview and literature study. The results of this final work begins with the background of the ASKARA INDONESIA European Cultural Mission. Then followed by the activities of Telkom University Choir during in Indonesia and Europe also the Telkom University Choir’s performance in the international stage in Europe. The conclusion of this final paper is to tell about the journey of Telkom University Choir starting from the earlier activities in Indonesia and the following activities in Europe whithin the ASKARA INDONESIA European Cultural Mission as well their efforts to be able to perform on the international stage in Europe.

Keywords: Documenter Movie, Choir, Europe