

ABSTRACT

Environment is everything that exists in nature and continues to grow. Good environmental conditions and comfortable required everyone to do their activities safely and comfortably. Pari Island is the largest island in the cluster of Pari Island. Pari Island became one of the favorite tourism object because of its beautiful beaches. The existence of tourism potential of Pari Island should be developed to improve the image of Pari Island tourism sightings. Environment Pari Island has a fairly hot temperature with high humidity. Under these conditions facilities processing must be tailored to the tourism object potential, climate, social environment, and the right placement environment. Cabana is a shade facility that has a roof and some have walls that are usually placed on the beach or pool. With the existence of adequate cabana facilities, can be support to enjoy the environment at tourism object Pari Island. Thus, the environmental aspect is applied to get the appropriate cabana placement with environmental conditions at tourism object Pari Island.

Key Words : Environment, Tourism Object Pari Island, Cabana, Environmental Aspect