

ABSTRACT

Prostitution is not a new phenomenon, it happened long time ago and continue existing from time to time. The motive and the form of prostitution varies following the current's era and triggered by many factors. Even though it keeps disturbing many people, the transaction process in prostitution business keeps going, now even exists on infamous social media and involves teenagers. Documentary film "Modus Operandi" is a film documentary work contains information about social, culture, and technology in the society. The film's duration is 23 minutes and tells about an adolescent who works as a pimp in prostitution business, and how he lives his normal life as a citizen. Besides his story, the story of a teen girl who works as a prostitute will also be included. The film will also show the actual causes of this phenomenon by asking their thoughts about socializing in the current's era, and also include statements from experts related to the phenomenon.

Keywords: Prostitution, Modus, Teenager, Criminal, Documentary Film