

ABSTRACT

Cooperative Sharia Arsinali Bangun Persada the cooperative is intended for employees PT Arsinali Bangun Persada. On cooperative Syaria Arsinali Bangun Persada all process and employee administration data manually and still recorded in ledger. Starting from recording member, employee administration transaction deposits and loans with contract mudharabah. Therefore the web application was built to manage the data are computerized and help the performance of the Executive Board of the cooperative. This web-based application built with object-oriented method and model development SDLC, as well as using the programming language PHP and Codeigniter Framework. The application has functionality for employee administration cooperative members, the recording of transactions deposits, the recording of the transaction a loan with mudharabah, payment of installment loans, the remaining calculations, business results, and making a transaction in the form of journals and ledgers. In addition, this web application will also generate information in the form of deposits and loan reports.

Keywords: Cooperative Of Sharia, Mudharabah, Framework Codeigniter