

ABSTRACT

The role of the Office is so important for companies to give added value to the continuity of work activities. The large number of air transportation service provider companies such as PT. Garuda Indonesia airline as a high-class five-star level. The company continues to strive to maximize each divisions to support service to consumers is best so that the consumer is not disillusionment with facilities provided by PT. Garuda Indonesia. Problems occurred in the offices of Garuda Indonesia call center located in JL. Terusan Buah Batu No. 33 Bandung employees who are bored and saturated against the interior and amenities are lacking. need for the addition of the facilities needed by employees of call centers. Organizational aspects of space is very important in the presence of additional facilities such as a lounge, discuss, or entertaining area needed to support the sustainability of the work employees do not feel bored and saturated in the Office. because the Office is currently practically as a second home for most people, especially in the city of Bandung. The convenience of an Office in all aspects of indirectly can improve the performance of employees. The interior design is therefore a very important Office of yan can affect the morale of employees and economic growth of the company.

Keywords : Office, Call Center, PT. Garuda Indonesia, Bandung.