

ABSTRACT

Indonesia is a country that has so much culture. In each region has its own culture that is always in the guard by the local community . Culture becomes one of the drawers for visitors to come to their area. In Payakumbuh and 50 Kota, West Sumatera for example. People always take care of their culture and always do from generation to generation from adult to chil. Hunting pigs using a dog is an activity that has been done continuously so it has become a community culture in the Payakumbuh and 50 Kota, West Sumatra. The large number of pigs that are always destructive and prey on their livestock so that people have to eliminate the pest. People prefer to use dogs instead of using weapons because of the many other benefits of hunting pigs using dogs, because it can be a means of sports and also to establish communication with other communities. because the writer is interested to lift into a documentary film with a duration of 15 minutes to directly know directly from this pig hunting activity.
