

ABSTRACT

Abstract— This application is to help PD Citra Busana to manage employee salaries. There are several problems in salary management, for recording taxes and accounting records. Number of employees in the company number of attendees and according to position. This application is made to deal with problems that exist in the process carried out by the company. The application in this study uses the waterfall model method, salary calculation is done by the number of employee attendance, position, and tax calculation based on PPh 21. Making applications using the PHP programming language with the CodeIgniter framework and MySQL database. Request testing using the Black Box Testing method.

Keywords: Payroll, Presence, Tax, My SQL,RFID