

PREFACE

Praise for Allah SWT for all the blessing and many supports from all people around me that enables me to complete this mini-thesis entitled “The Impact of Ramadan on Abnormal Returns toward Indonesia Stock Exchange (IDX) (Case Study on Jakarta Islamic Index Year 2014-2018)”.

The author would also express his sincere thanks to others who has given the contribution for the author. The author would like to extend his thank to:

1. Irni Yunita, S.T., M.M as my supervisor for guiding me to finish mini-thesis.
2. All Economics and Business Faculty lectures that taught me many lessons and experiences through academic and non-academic activities.
3. My parents, Iman Fadli Sabarudin and Sri Berliyanti for supporting and advising me in many ways I could not explain one by one.
4. My sister, Octavia Intan Imanisa who always help me whenever I need it.
5. Siska Ardiyanti Cahyaningtyas who always remind me to finish my mini-thesis as fast as possible.
6. All of my friends in International ICT business and Economics and Business Faculty that supports me to do the mini-thesis.
7. My college organizations, International ICT Business Student Council and Dewan Perwakilan Mahasiswa of Economics and Business Faculty that taught me tons of softskill lessons.

The Author realized that there were still errors on writing this mini-thesis. Therefore, The Author appreciates any advice or suggestions which can be used to polish this mini-thesis better. Hopefully, this mini-thesis can be useful for those who read it.

Author,
