ABSTRACT

Application management convection and civil servant wages embroidery web-based is applications were used to help recording and data saving pieces of material, presenting reports on the results of pieces who succeeded and failed, and presenting report civil servant wages embroidery. So that admin and the owner of able to process data in a more accurate and easier in access. The process is in it must be managed in detail and clear. But sometimes there are some problems in the process of recording and. presentation of the reportThis program to address the process of recording and a more manageable, counting the pieces of work and, failed the report provides a slice of each employee, embroidery and counting salary each employee of the total. have work to do. The application was built in version website by using the method waterfall , using basisdata mysql and framework codeigniter (CI) .The construction of the application , can help admin and owners in the recording and data storage and the presentation of the report salary workers in puri busana collection

Keywords: Puri Busana Collection, PHP CodeIgniter, MySQL, Academic Information System