

ABSTRACT

The Jambi City Communication and Information Service Office is a service office under the Jambi City government in charge of communication and informatics networks throughout Jambi City, managing data and products electronically as well as assisting Jambi City government officials and the public in disseminating filtered information first so that information - information can be trusted by all people of the City of Jambi.

Interior Design Office of the Communication and Information Office of Jambi City is a new interior design located in the Kotabaru area (city center). This design aims to create a school interior space that complies with ministerial regulation standards to achieve formal atmosphere and provide comfort while working, as well as effectiveness as well as efficiency in supporting the work activities of employees and influencing the importance of maintaining long-term health and environmental sustainability.

The Interior Design Project of the Office of Communication and Information Office in Jambi City will create a space that will later be able to support the effectiveness, interactive and convenience of users with the application of the theme Innovation on Digital-Based Government. From the basic aspects of digital, the atmosphere of employees as dominant users who can facilitate electronic work and digital use that can be done with the wider community and employees in accessing applications from the Office of Communication and Information Technology, Jambi City.

Keywords: Communication and Information Service Office, Space Atmosphere, Office Flexibility System, 3C (Clever, Clean, & Connection)