

ABSTRACT

Of religious life in special areas the capital Jakarta is tinged and being affected by several factors, namely the levels of population growth a quick turn; diversity of the nation and customs; and his position as an entrance to a current of modernization and information from foreign. The role of religion in institutions for the education of the teaching staff and religious already produced evidence had an important role and help resolve the lack of facility religious education in Jakarta.

The community currently require a means of / another vessel that not only give penjelasan-penjelasan science alone, but also teach generation in order to act and behave that enough master of total clarity / akhlaqul karimah related to a science teaching based on faith and taqwa.

As for the purpose of design student dormitory as a center of spiritual growth and science ( at ppm al-faqih independent ) this as a container and facilities to introduce the students and the society about the center of spiritual growth and scientific, based on religious terms developed by a few basic element in terms of, zoning blocking, and layout in accordance with the activity and behavior to the space. So can also provide innovation towards the interior student dormitory in accordance with the character al-faqih independently and assist in the field of scientific, particular area of interior design.

Key words: of a boarding house, mahasantri, the level of education of the science of the religion