

ABSTRACT

The author aims to cognize how women is represented in gender issues which is couldn't been eliminated in the patriarchy culture. Where from in a young age, the society has been introduced by gender roles and gender stereotypes especially towards women. Gender roles is a social construct to label each assigned sex types. The label put men and women in a different level especially in a patriarchy culture, which in a way that men are more superior than women. Hence, the gender roles made its self as a 'nature' in many religious beliefs and social. The author strongly rejects the stereotype and the social construct toward gender in society. The final project is expected to develop some ideas and encourage the audience to discuss the author's statements.

Keywords: gender issues, social construct, gender role