

MOTTO AND DEDICATION SHEET

Many puzzles in life, do not know what next, joy or sorrow must still go on with tears or happiness. It's not easy for me to get through all this, it's not easy for me to survive alone here. With all my strength and all my heart I went through various obstacles because I believed there was a rainbow ahead.

No one is able to go through all this, only the chosen people are able to prove that no attempt has betrayed the results.

I dedicated my final thesis to my whole family, especially my parents
