

ABSTRACT

Fadfa Collections store is a shop that sells baby and children's equipment. Sales transactions conducted by Fadfa Collections Store online and offline. Online sales are made by Fadfa Collections Stores through several e-commerce startups in Indonesia, namely: Shopee, Tokopedia, Lazada, and Bukalapak. Preparation of income statements applications at Fadfa Collections Store are applications that are used to help at Fadfa Collections Store process the sales and preparation of income statements. Problems encountered in the sales process and preparation of income statements are only entrusted to sales reports provided by Startup e-commerce. Calculation of profit is based on sales reports provided by Startup e-commerce, the recording is done less than the maximum and cause an error in recording transactions. This application was created to handle problems at the Fadfa Collections Store in handling sales transactions and preparation of income statements. The method used in designing this application uses the System Development Life Cycle (SDLC) method with the waterfall model. Making an application using the PHP programming language and CodeIgniter framework and MySQL database. Application testing uses the Black box testing method.

Keywords: Sales, Financial Statements