

ABSTRACT

Application of Inventory Administration in the environment of Banjar ministry is functions to record, inventory and report on local government property. This web-based application is built using object-oriented methods and the waterfall method and also using the CodeIgniter Framework and PHP programming language implementation. This application has the functionality of managing the recording of inventory income and expenditure transactions, recording mutations and valuation of inventories, recording initial balances based on the source of funds, and making accounting records and financial statements.

Keywords: Inventory, Administration, SKPD, CodeIgniter Framework, PHP.