

ABSTRACT

THE DESIGN INTERIOR OF THE LIBRARY IN CIBEUNYING BANDUNG

Cici Lia Ivo Tamba

Interior Design, Faculty of Creative Industries, Telkom University

Telecommunication Street No.1, Terusan Buah Batu, Sukapura,

Bandung, West Java 40527

Bandung is one of education city located in Indonesia, education is very important to some growth of society especially the city of Bandung. The local public library, the government expects to help facilitate the access of the community about to come to the library so as to obtain non-formal education namely increase science in reading book. The purpose of this library design is make a interior architecture Well Being, which is to create the state of the interior of a healthy take on a state of space. The methodology applied in the design or this is through the observation comparative studies, the study literature etc. With the design, it is expected that the problem in the library favorable issue and the problem of the interior of social, could be solved so that it can meet the people needs thoroughly.

Keywords: Library, forming non-formal education, Interior Architecture Well Being