

ABSTRACT

The Sea Trade Management Application is an application that intended to PT.Anugrah Laut Indonesia. This Application is used by company employees for data managing of goods, trade transaction process, and the invoice reporting. For those purpose this application is expected to be accessed for all the employees of the company, so it can handle to help increasing company's performance be more efficient.

The sea trade management application is a web based application that would be easy to access in personal computer or laptop. So it could be easier to use for an employees to record and monitor the company's business. This application was built using the Laravel framework and MySQL as a database server.

Keywords: The sea trade management application, PT Anugrah Laut Indonesia, Laravel, MySQL, Website