ABSTRACT

Practicum activity is one of the evaluation activity used in Telkom University Applied Science School. In this activity lecturer and with the help of praticum assistant deliver the module materials of the lecture to students. After the module has been given, students will have to do evaluation task consisted of opening task, journal and finishing task. The task later will be evaluated by practicum asisstant and reported to the lecturer in the last week of lecture. Other than that practicum activities, the scheduling of practicum assistant is done by the lecturer. And the making of practicum module in the first week of class meeting. The development of this Practicum Management Application for lecturer and practicum assistant module is to help those practicum management. The application is build by using prototype method, web based with CodeIgniter framework and MySQL database.

Keywords : Practicum, Lecturer, Practicum Assistant