

Abstract

Seserahan Bukittinggi is a trading company that sells various kinds of wedding offerings. All Transactions carried out in this company are still conventional in nature, all trnsactions are recorded on a shett of paper which does not cover the possibility of serrors such as missing data, mismatching of transactions data carried out so that the recording reports is inappropriate. In line with current rechnological developments, an applications was made that could process inventory, sales and record accordingly. Writing program code in this final project application, using CodeIgniter (CI) and Master Data Using MySQL. Testing of the Blackbox Testing method. This applications has functionality that isi able to process account data, process customer data, process goods data, process cash puchases, record inventories using average, process cash and process reports accounting records.

Keywords: CI, MySQL, Black Box Testing