

ABSTRACT

Expression is an expression of one's feelings for what is felt and experienced. Expression arises when someone is feeling excitement, fear, sadness and worry. In this case, I (as a subject who feels this) tries to present something that is felt about the figure of a father and share it with the audience.