ABSTRACT

Contributions being one requirement for every citizen housing. Contributions used for the public interest. Changes in income and expenditure are kept by the funds. Currently, almost every data can be accessed and stored online. Warga Berseri application is applications will be able to manage the fees. The purpose of this application is to simplify in the managing for the income and expenditure, and simplify citizen to know the use of tuition. The application was built using PHP programming language, with framework CodeIgniter and use MySQL database. The construction of this application utilizing a methodology waterfall.

Key Words: contributions , management