

ABSTRACT

The background of this report is a command to developing new end table furniture design by changing its visual and change the material to minimize the budget, discussed issues in this report is to design with price benchmark and change its common used material to a cheaper price but with good visual to the product itself, the purpose of this report is to give an archive concept design product as a reference for end table with a minimalist model and cheap price and hope be used for mass production and main end table product the factory that used for internship in D'Jong Design, a factory that focused on interior design and architect located in Ciloa, Padalarang-Cisarua, based by the study, founded that end table have many concept and there is so many minimalist furniture to be used as a reference for making this end table product.

Keyword: product, minimize, furniture, material