

LEMBAR PERSEMBAHAN

I dedicate this final project to my parents. Thank You Mom and Dad for everything you gave to me till this moment. Thank You for your support. Thank You for raising me as a Kid. Thank you for all your prayers. I know I can never thank you enough. I hope that the completion of my college studies will be the beginning of my success. Future so bright I can see it, I believe it. Last but not least I wanna say I love you Mom eternally.
