

PREFACE

All praise and gratitude goes to Allah Subhanahu Wa Ta'ala that has given grace and blessings to the author so the mini thesis can be complete with the title “THE INFLUENCE OF FINANCIAL LITERACY AND FINANCIAL INCLUSION ON INVESTMENT DECISIONS OF BALIKPAPAN CITY RESIDENTS” as a requirement for completing the bachelor’s degree of International ICT Business study program at Telkom University.

During this research process, the authors often encounter obstacles as well as criticism, suggestions, and motivations from various parties. All the kindness received really helps the author to continue this research until it’s finished. Therefore, the author would express gratitude to:

1. Mrs. Dr. Astrie Krisnawati, S.Sos., M.Si.M as the author’s supervisor during this research.
2. Mrs. Dr. Ratri Wahyuningtyas, S.T., M.M., as the dean of Telkom University’s School of Economics and Business.
3. Mrs. Ratih Hendayani, S.T., M.M., Ph.D. as the head of program management.
4. Mrs. Risris Rismayani, S.MB., S.Pd., MM as the author’s guardian lecturer.
5. The author’s parents and the author’s older siblings, who have their own way of encouraging the author to do better.
6. Fadia, Dania, Dila, Dela, Cika, Farah and the whole TWS group member.
7. Tasya, as the author’s closest people that has been there through everything.

At last, the author hope this mini thesis can provide benefits to related parties. However, the author also realize that the writing of this mini thesis is not perfect so all criticism and suggestions are very welcome.

Bandung, 23 February 2021,

Alya Faraz Khanza