

PREFACE

Praise be to God, Allah SWT that has been showering the researcher with abundance of mercy and strength, therefore the author can finish the final project with the title “The Influence Of E-Integrated Marketing Communications On Intention To Use Of Spaylater: The Mediating Role Of Perceived Risk”. The final project is conducted in aiming to fulfill on of the requirements in persuading the bachelor’s degree of business administration in Telkom University.

The author realizes that author could not have completed this thesis without the support, assistance, guidance, and advice from various parties during the preparation of this thesis. Furthermore, the author would like to give appreciation to:

1. Dr. Sita Deliyana Firmialy, S.E., M.S.M., as a supervisor and advisor in writing the final project. She has always been one of the biggest inspirations in doing more challenging tasks, she gives abundance of advice and helps in solving problems during the research and during the lecture.
2. Mrs. Trisha Gilang Saraswati, S.E., M.S.M., as a guardian lecturer who has helped the author in following and completing studies at the Faculty of Communication and Business at Telkom University.
3. The author's parents, Bapak Yudhi and Bu Rina, always give love, prayers, advice, and extraordinary patience in every step of the author's life, which is the greatest gift in life. The author hopes to be a child that they can be proud of.
4. My beloved brother, Ziaadatan Ardana, thank you for your prayers and support.
5. Examiner 1 and 2 who have given constructive criticisms and suggestions to perfecting the final project.
6. My best buddy Sansan, thank you so much
7. Administrative staffs and all lecturers.
8. Beloved friends from AB-42-INT.
9. Every party involved without decreasing the respect that the researcher cannot write one by one.

May God always bless those who are mentioned above. Every sacrifice and effort given may become a merciful deed. And I realized that this thesis is still far from perfect because of the limited knowledge. For this reason, I humbly expect suggestions and constructive criticism from all parties to build this research report.

At last, I hope that this final project could be helpful for the company and the public.
