

ABSTRACT

The development of startups is currently experiencing rapid growth in the Southeast Asian region, especially Indonesia according to the research conducted by the Directorate of Higher Education 956 startups are registered in four years. Startup is a business company that has recently formed and is still researching its startup products. in an era where digital startup is more devoted to online-based businesses and technology.

This startup and intellectual property right monitoring application was built to guide tenants to build startups guided by Bandung Techno Park as the party responsible for protecting registered tenants

Startups and tenants that have been registered and have revenue will be reported to the Ministry of Research and State Universities

Keywords:Startups,Information Technologi,Intellectual Property Righth,online,tenant