ABSTRACT

As the time goes, the needs of technology is now covering all fields like managing membership of Asosiasi Profesi Pendidikan Pancasila dan Kewarganegaraan Indonesia. In this final project, a web-based application will be made to fulfill its needs which is to facilitate members and staffs to managing membership of the organization. In this final project, Waterfall methodology is used for the development of the system/application. And as for the programming language are PHP with Codeigniter as its framework, and MySQL for the database. The tools that used for this final project are Visual Studio Code and XAMPP. This application is expected to facilitating users and staffs to processing the users data and managing its membership of Asosiasi Profesi Pendidikan Pancasila dan Kewarganegaraan Indonesia.

Keyword : Membership Management, Web, CodeIgniter.