

ABSTRACT

In the current era, technology grows rapidly and exponentially. Likewise, technology grows in Education field. Teachers are required to find creative way to increase students' enthusiasm in study, specifically in this pandemic era when we use digital learning as learning media. Natural Science is one of the essential subject in elementary school, however it is considered as a boring subject for students. However, environment concern needs to be improved. It is important for student to grow environment concern to Elementary School Students. Elementary School students considered very effective to implement new information to their daily life. The offered solution is Interactive storytelling Mobile App as digital learning media for 1st grade students of Khoiru Ummah Elementary school.

Keyword: Digital Learning, Mobile App, Storytelling