

ABSTRACT

Legal problems in Indonesia are growing day by day, one of which is legal problems in the family, for example marriage, divorce, inheritance, waqf, infaq shodaqoh, shari'ah economics etc. which is the authority of the Religious Courts as an institution of judicial power domiciled in a district or city.

Religious Court Sumedang established in 1530, changed its name to the Courts of Law Islam Sumedang in 1882 under Dutch rule and in 1974 became the Religious Court Sumedang class IA with a land area of 100 m² and 2023 will be relocated to new premises with an area of 3000 m² floor 3 modern style.

The interior design pays attention to facilities for people with disabilities or people with disabilities with concepts and styles that can support all activities of people with disabilities in the building and must comply with the standards that have been given by the Ministry and the Supreme Court of the Republic of Indonesia regarding the standard of facilities that must be met by every judicial body in the building. Indonesia.

The application of a concept in a new building that must be symmetrical, active, noble and fair so that it can provide comfort and good service for justice seekers by paying attention to the differences in activity programs and different facilities in each organizational structure that is applied to each difference in facilities, furniture, area room, privacy system,.

Keywords: Religious Courts, Fair, Symmetrical, Supreme, Facilities, Circulation