

ABSTRACT

In 2020 there was a pandemic originating from the COVID-19 virus that changed the behavior of people's lives. The initial appearance of this virus in Indonesia made some people very afraid and kept the health protocols in place. However, the public has received several deviant issues regarding the COVID-19 virus, so the spike in infections with the COVID-19 virus continues to grow. Each individual has an important role to play in maintaining health protocols in order to reduce the spread of the COVID-19 virus, like a domino, each individual will bring down one another. There is also the final result of this writing to create a short fiction film by focusing on an understanding of production designers. This design is made through a qualitative method by collecting data from certain sources to provide a visual that can be accepted by the audience and understood from the perspective of the audience.
