Mental Illness Depression With The Title Mentally Unstable On Performance Art

Final Project: Fine Arts Study Program Faculty of Creative Industries Telkom University

Art has many categories, one of which is Performance Art, which the writer appointed for this final project. Performance Art in Indonesia is no less good, there are so many Indonesian artists whose works are recognized by outsiders. Along with the times, of course, it also has an impact on art in all aspects, more and more Performance Art artists have emerged whose works are good and have received many awards. Several artists whose works have appeared outside have even received awards, namely, Melati Suryodarmo, FX Harsono, and many more. In this final project entitled Mentally Unstable in Performance Art, the author wants to talk about the anxiety and depression that occur in individuals, due to trauma in the past from childhood to adulthood, one of the causes can be a broken home, bullying, and many more. This Final Project of Performance Art was chosen by the author after many considerations and references, from one of the assignments that the author had made in the Performance Art course in semester 6, and other references the author liked the performance art done by Melati Suryodarmo – Butter Dance and FX Harsono - Writing In The Rain.
