

ABSTRACT

The problem experienced by private midwife clinics is the unavailability of technology that can facilitate the process of taking inpatient schedules for patients. This process is done manually using a pen and paper that is prone to damage with file management. The purpose of this research is to create functionalities for managing patient data and medical records that allow admins to make reports quickly and efficiently and create booking and referral features that can be validated by admins so as to assist patients in applying for hospitalization and referrals.

Keywords: Inpatient Administration, Private Midwife Clinic, Web