

DEDICATION

This research is arranged with the support of many people around the author. I dedicate this research to my parents especially my beloved mother, Ida Sunarwati, who told me in my childhood that dreams can come true.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The first sentence is always praise to Allah, God of all mankind, that allows the author to complete this work. Secondly, peace may be upon The Messenger, Muhammad PBUH, whose help is expected later by the author.

This research would not have been possible without my supervisors, Mr. Suyanto and Mrs. Ema Rachmawati, who encourage me that this work can be implemented and finished on time. The advises and time that has been given by them is highly appreciated. The extensive thanks is delivered to the examiners, Mr Mahmud Dwi Sulistiyo, Mr. Jimmy Tirtawangsa, and Mr. Tjokorda Agung, for their suggestions, supports, and outlook to make this thesis as good research.

The big thanks should also go to the board of Surya Edukasi Bangsa Foundation for its Online Scholarship Competition, that makes me able to take this master degree. Hope the scholarship will continue in providing the access to higher education for all students in Indonesia

I'm also thankful to the Head of Master of Informatics, Mrs. Setyorini for her attention and facilities since beginning. My thanks is also for Mrs. Ri Handayani for all of her answer and help to my study problem. Many thanks is also going to all lectures of the program who share their knowledge and wisdom to me.

The countless thanks is going to my parents, Nur Achmadi and Ida Sunarwati. Their supports and strong-wonderful prayers are transmited to me in breaking the deadlock. Many thanks also to my only sister Nurida Khusnuniyyah, her husband Rosyidin Aminullah, and my cute niece Adinda Naura Rasyifa for their strong support in my study.

I'd like acknowledge for the support of eHealth.co.id family, especially to the engineer team, Ibrohim, Indah, and Setyo. The enjoyable but challenging environment with them allows me to handle two responsibilities, work and education, without too much trouble. The thankful support is also come from my friends in Master of Informatics.

I would also mention my bestfriends in Panglima team, for their warm brotherhood. I'd not miss to thank my motivational giver, who willing to wait and pray for me to reach my dream. Lastly, I express my gratitude for all people that support this work.
